Itinerary:

SATURDAY: OPATIJA - ISLAND OF KRK

Departure from Opatija harbor towards island of Krk (the biggest of the islands) at 13:00. If the weather permits, we stop for an afternoon swim in the crystal clear sea and have an early dinner (BBQ), a great way to get acquainted your crew and fellow passengers. Arrival in Krk Town in late afternoon. This Island has immense variety in its villages large and small, gentle green promenades bare rocky wilderness, tiny islands and hundreds of hidden bays and beaches. Overnight in town of Krk and where one is able to explore the old town on one's own.

SUNDAY: ISLAND OF KRK - ISLAND OF RAB

Breakfast is served on the ship after which we continue to the Island of Rab, known as the "island of love". The small town of Rab, where we spend the night in the harbour, is encircled in medieval walls, Romanesque church towers, churches and palaces, stone streets and ancient facades. Enjoy the "gallery" on the streets and squares where many painters and artists exhibit their works.

MONDAY: ISLAND OF RAB - ZADAR

After breakfast we cruise from Rab along the island of Pag with a swim stop on the tiny island MAUN, and continue to towards Zadar. Use the possibility to join our guided tour of the city in English. For centuries the metropolis of Dalmatia, and today the centre of the region, Zadar has been a city of rich monumental heritage of world importance visible at every step even today: the Roman forum dated to the 1st century AD, the church of St. Donatus dated to the 9th century AD – the most famous Medieval basilica and the symbol of the city, the mighty city walls with representative Port and Land gates from the 16th century AD, and numerous palaces, villas and other monumental heritage. The town is full of great restaurants packed in the centre and already mentioned historical monuments that can be found in and around the city – of special interest is the famous Zadar Sea Organ.

TUESDAY: ZADAR - ISLAND MOLAT or OLIB

Early departure for Island Molat or island Olib (depending on available space in the small harbours of these two islands). The Molat island is situated in the northern part of Zadar's archipelago. The peace, serenity and the minimal infrastructures will most certainly impact you. Olib is a place where you can rest your body and soul, and see why some people choose to spend their holiday on an island that only has 4 restaurants and 3 shops.

WEDNESDAY: ISLAND OF MOLAT or OLIB - ILOVIK - ISLAND OF LOŠINJ

After breakfast and morning swim, we sail to the island of flowers called Ilovik. Departure for the island of Mali Lošinj (lunch on route), which is one of the most popular islands on the northern Adriatic due to the abundance of pine trees and clear waters. Mali Lošinj is among those places with the sunniest days per year in Europe. Take a walk along the harbor or dare to take a night swim on the sandy Cikat beach or visit nearby, picturesque, town of Veli Lošinj (only 5 km away). Overnight in Mali Lošinj.

THURSDAY: ISLAND OF LOŠINJ - ISLAND OF CRES

After a morning swim we leave for the island of Cres. This long and narrow island is covered with oak, beach and pine forests as well as vineyards and olive tree plantations. Cres and Mali Lošinj used to be one island but a channel dug by the Romans separates them. We spend the night in the harbor of the typical medieval city of Cres.

FRIDAY: ISLAND OF CRES - OPATIJA

After breakfast we leave for Opatija. On route we have the opportunity to enjoy the magnificent view of the famous Opatija Riviera. Arrival in the late afternoon. Possibility to join our English guided tour of Opatija immediately upon arrival to the port. Get to know the towns rich and interesting history, and find out why it was and still is considered one of the most memorable tourist retreats in Europe. Opatija architecture and atmosphere will make an impression on you that you will never forget. For your last night on board we recommend a farewell party on the ship, a great opportunity for exchanging addresses with other passengers who have by now become your new friends. You can also take a stroll along famous LUNGO MARE pathway to the fisherman village VOLOSKO – well known for excellent seafood restaurants, the best in the region.

SATURDAY: OPATIJA

After breakfast you will say goodbye to the crew and we hope to see you again aboard Katarina Line cruises.
